

Walworth School Privacy notice for Governors

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about governing body members. We, Walworth School, are the 'data controller' for the purposes of data protection law.

Enquiries should be addressed to Hannah Tomlinson, Data Protection Officer, at Walworth School.

Who we are and what we do

We are Walworth School. We are a maintained primary school for children ages 4 – 11 years old. Our local authority is Durham County Council.

The personal data we collect and hold

We hold personal data about governors to support their role and professional development.

Personal data that we may collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) about governors includes, but is not restricted to:

- Contact details, identification documents
- Professional development record
- DBS number
- Photographs/videos captured in school
- CCTV images (Acorn House)

Why we use this data

We use this data to:

- Establish and maintain effective governance
- Meet statutory obligations for publishing and sharing governor's details
- Facilitate safe recruitment, as part of our safeguarding obligations towards pupils

Our legal basis for using this data

We collect and use personal data on the basis of performing a public task (educating children).

On some occasions we may ask for consent to process data when its use is optional. On those occasions consent can be withdrawn at any time. We will make this clear when we ask for consent, and explain how consent can be withdrawn.

Collecting this information

We collect data from paper forms, online information and communication with yourself and from electronic image devices.

How we store this data

We keep personal information about governors while they are serving at our school. We may also keep it beyond their time at our school if this is necessary in order to comply with our legal obligations.

We will only retain the data we collect for as long as is necessary. This would be to satisfy the purpose for which it has been collected in accordance with our data retention policy. Please contact us if you would like further details on this policy.

The security of data and information is important to us. This is why we follow a range of security policies and procedures to control and safeguard access to and use of your personal information. This includes both physical and technical security and integrity of all data.

Examples of our security include:

- Encryption, meaning that information is hidden so that it cannot be read without access knowledge (such as a password). This is done with a secret code or what's called a 'cypher'. The hidden information is said to then be 'encrypted';
- Controlling access to systems and networks allows us to stop people who are not allowed to view your personal information from getting access to it;
- Training for our staff allows us to make them aware of how to handle information and how and when to report when something goes wrong;
- Regular testing of our technology and ways of working including keeping up to date on the latest security updates (commonly called patches);

Data sharing

We may share your personal information where we have a statutory obligation to do so, such as for the purposes of the prevention or detection of crime, for legal proceedings, with the Disclosure & Barring Service, or where you have requested us to share information.

We do not process your personal information outside the EEC.

At no time will your information be passed to organisations external to us, or our partners for marketing or sales purposes, or for any other commercial use without your prior express consent.

Your information rights

Your Information Rights are set out in the law. Subject to some legal exceptions, you have the right to:

- Have any inaccuracies corrected;
- Have your personal data erased;
- Place a restriction on our processing of your data;
- Object to processing; and
- Request your data to be ported (data portability).

To learn more about these rights please see the ICO website.

To exercise any of these rights please contact the relevant service in the first instance.

You also have the right to request a copy of the personal information that the school holds about you. To do this, please ask the Data Protection Officer, Hannah Tomlinson.

Please allow 24 hours notice before you see your file in line with school policy.

If something goes wrong with your personal information, or you have questions about how we use it, please contact Hannah Tomlinson the Data Protection Officer.

If we have not been able to deal with your complaint, you can also contact the Information Commissioner's Office

Other rights

Individuals have rights regarding how their personal data is used and kept safe, including the right to:

- Object to the use of personal data if it would cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- Prevent it being used to send direct marketing
- Object to decisions being taken by automated means (by a computer or machine, rather than by a person)
- In certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data corrected, deleted or destroyed, or restrict processing
- Claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the data protection regulations

To exercise any of these rights, please contact our data protection officer.

Complaints

We take any complaints about our collection and use of personal information very seriously.

If you think that our collection or use of personal information is unfair, misleading or inappropriate, or have any other concern about our data processing, please raise this with us in the first instance.

To make a complaint, please contact our data protection officer.

Alternatively, you can make a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office:

- Report a concern online at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>
- Call 0303 123 1113
- Or write to: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF
